

Anima Christi

Ruth Scherer Leacock

Gently $\bullet = 110$

1

1a O May all that is you flow to
 1b May your bod - y and blood be my food and
 2a May your pas - sion and death be my life and
 2b May your shad - ow - ing cross be a shel - t'ring
 3a Draw us near to your gift of a - bid - ing
 3b On each dy - ing, O Lord, send your light and
 4 Call to us, Lord, till in fin - al

5

1a me. A Spir - it of God filled hu - man - i - ty.
 1b drink. Bread for the depth of our hun - ger - ing.
 2a strength. Com - pas - sion - ate hope in our wound - ed - ness.
 2b place. Rest for the wear - y, re - deem - ing grace.
 3a love. Safe from the grasp of the e - vil one.
 3b love. Grace to as - cend ev - 'ry troub - ling loss.
 4a days we join with your saints in e - ter - nal praise.

10

1,2,3,4 Lord, with you e - nough has been giv - en.

REFRAIN

15

Soul of Christ, our breath of life, ev - 'ry

19

need finds its grace in you!

26

— finds its grace in you!

Anima Christi ©2002 Ruth Scherer Leacock All rights reserved.
 Text based on paraphrase of Anima Christi by David L. Fleming,
 The Institute of Jesuit Sources. Used with permission.