

♩ = 130
Allegro

From-Here-To-There Glory

Ruth Scherer Leacock

1 Confidently

1. A where - we - came - from peo - ple knows how it all be -
2. A Spir - it - in - us peo - ple is ev - er on the
3. The bold im - ag - i - na - tion of peo - ple yet to

1. gan. Set - tling the cit - y and hal - low - ing the
2. way with here - be - fore - us trust in the God of ev - 'ry
3. be is fash - ion - ing the heart of a can - you - see - it

1. land. Their mem - 'ry is food and well sea - soned wine. Their
2. day. Each joy - ful step, each path late - ly trod,
3. dream. Born high on the mount of all yet un - done, their

1. les - son, their stor - y of ev - er af - ter time. —
2. each mo - ment graced with an ev - er pres - ent God. —
3. long - ing, their vis - ion: the king - dom yet to come. —

REFRAIN

From - here - to - there glo - ry hor - i - zons of grace.

Bless - ed, O God, your peo - ple of faith who tra - verse your will in joy - - ful hope, a foot on the prom - ised land. —