

Take Us To The Mountain

$\bullet = 110$

Cheerfully

Ruth Scherer Leacock

1

1. Might - y mak - er of stars and light, — you hold the un - i - verse.
2. Cher - ished work of your hand we are — in - tim - ite - ly known.
3. In your mer - cy you came to save — the way - ward and the lost.

5

1. Ev - 'ry crea - ture and liv - ing thing on your pre - cious earth. —
2. Called by name ev - en 'fore our birth; — Your love our home. —
3. Suf - 'ring ser - vant you paid the price, — bear - ing the cross. —

9

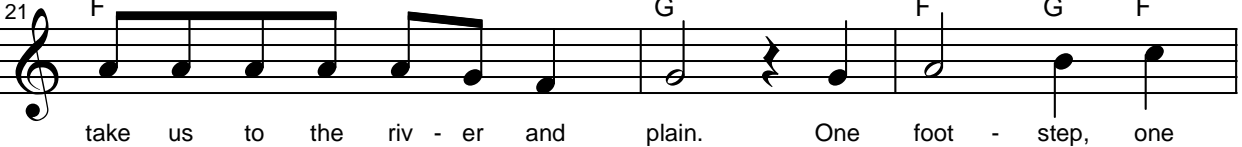

1. Now in our lit - tle - ness, our need - ful - ness, we come to you in
2. You bid us al - ways seek and find our worth — i - den - ti - ty in
3. You broke the bonds of sin, the bonds of death that take us far from

13

1. trust. Gra - cious Lord, we want what you — want for us. —
2. you. Gra - cious Lord, we pray in our — grat - i - tude. —
3. you. Gra - cious Lord, we pray in our — grat - i - tude. —

19 REFRAIN

Take us to the moun - tain. Take us to the val - ley.

21

take us to the riv - er and plain. One foot - step, one jour - ney, — giv - ing thanks and praise.

24 